

Argentina 2015!

In March I am going to Argentina for a three week mission where we are expecting a mighty harvest of souls and a wonderful outpouring of God's Spirit. As our friends and partners I am asking if you will please stand with us in prayer throughout these three weeks and intercede for us as we contend for breakthrough in some needy areas. In some meetings there will be thousands of unsaved people in attendance including the sick and those bound in witchcraft. Please pray for the gospel of Jesus Christ to penetrate the hearts of these precious people.

Thank you for your support
Evangelist Andrew Murray

Protection

I will be flying from Heathrow airport on Wednesday 4th March and arriving in Argentina the following day with a brief stopover in Brazil. Travelling with me will be Steve Finnerty from Revive church in Hull. Once in Argentina we will be joined by Paul and Cheryl Bendele, experienced missionaries now based in Orlando, Florida with Missionary Ventures.

For the second part of the trip we will be joined by Scott Bottger and Brandon Dukes from Heritage Fellowship in Kentucky.

Please pray for God's protection upon the whole team as we travel and minister as well as for our translators Stephen Wallace and Milcah Jago. Especially pray for strength and health as we minister every day for three weeks.

Wider Cordoba ministry Monday 9th-Sunday 15th March

Pastor Carlos not only leads Agape church but as an apostle he oversees several other churches in the Cordoba region. In our second week in Argentina we will be ministering in several of these churches as well as visiting churches connected with Paul and Cheryl from their time living in Argentina. Some of these meetings will be small gatherings in people's homes, some may be larger events with several hundred people present. We will be ministering in some very poor communities and also spending time with an orphanage set up by American missionaries several years ago.

Agape To The Nations Friday 6th-Sunday 8th March

Led by Pastor Carlos Sanchez, Agape to the Nations is an Assemblies of God church that has almost quadrupled in size since we were last there in 2012. They have a brand new auditorium that seats 1000 people, and they fill it three times in back to back services on Sundays.

We will be ministering in a revival service on the Friday night; a teaching service for church members on Saturday afternoon; and an outreach service on Saturday evening.

Sunday we are ministering in all three services where they want us to preach the gospel and go for souls!

Missionary legends Saturday 14th & Sunday 15th March

Many people will have been impacted by the story of the missionary Jim Elliott who was martyred on the mission field whilst taking the gospel to Ecuador. Along with Elliot, his pilot Nate Saint was one of those killed. Nate's nephew and niece David Saint and Evelyn Saint Hermenez both followed their famous uncle by following the call of God into missions and both lead large churches in Cordoba. We are honoured to be with Evelyn on the Saturday night and David on the Sunday morning.

Two special places Chancai...

During the trip we are visiting two places that are very dear to our hearts. Chancani is a tiny village with a population of just 500 people. It is totally isolated from the rest of Cordoba and is an incredibly needy community with alcohol addiction, spousal abuse and even incest common. In the midst of this spiritually barren place there is a tiny church of about a dozen believers

Last time we passed through Chancani God did three incredible miracles – bringing salvation to the pastors backslidden daughter (she is now the youth leader in the church), healing a woman who had been deaf and mute from birth and ending a three month drought by literally opening up the heavens! God gave us a real burden for this town so we are there for two days 12th and 13th March; holding a believers meeting in the church and two open air evangelistic events. I believe revival can break out here! Please pray!

...and San Pedro

On our last night in Argentina in 2012 we visited another small community in a place called San Pedro. I was imagining a small house group type meeting so imagine my shock to see 1000 people crammed into a warehouse. The believers were so moved by our visit and the community so curious by us that nearly everyone turned out! That night we saw hundreds come to Christ. We are visiting again on Thursday 19th March and this time they are hiring an outdoor venue and are telling us to expect a crowd of around 2000 people.

Villa Doleres Friday 20th-Sunday 22nd March

Many people have heard of "The Argentine Revival" but Villa Doleres is a place untouched by revival and desperate for a move of God. The pastors we have spoken to have told us they are hungry for God to move and are believing that our visit will result in a true Holy Spirit explosion in the area.

All the churches are working together and they have told the believers that everyone must invite unsaved people to the meetings. They are hiring an outdoor theatre that seats several thousand people for three nights back to back and are expecting an incredible harvest of souls!

On the Sunday morning the team will be split up as myself and Scott Bottger preach in two separate churches, Scott in Villa Doleres and myself in the nearby town of Mirlo.

Also during this visit we will ministering at a pastor's breakfast and are praying for God's fire to fall afresh on his servants.

Please pray for us throughout this mission and we look forward to returning with some incredible testimonies of what God has done!

Live in the UK?! – Don't miss Revival Nights in Hull!

Just two days after I return from Argentina, Generation Builders will be holding a special Revival Night in Hull. Myself and Steve Finnerty will share testimonies from the mission, I will preach a prophetic word for the UK at this time and then there will be a time of impartation and prayer for the sick.

Laura Murray will be leading worship and we are expecting an outpouring of the Holy Spirit!

The venue is Revive church, Bridlington Avenue and the date is Saturday 28th March, at 7.00 pm. This is open to any church of any denomination, come hungry for God to touch your life!
